

Lightforth — Sales Reminders

Daily Reminders

Morning Prep

- ☐ Check trial signups from the last 24 hours
- ☐ Review any stalled trials (signed up, no resume tailored yet)
- ☐ Check Copilot suggestions from yesterday's demo calls for gaps

Before Each Call

- ☐ Ask for (or find) a real job posting the person is targeting
- ☐ Review relevant objection responses for their likely concerns
- ☐ Have the trial link ready to send immediately after

After Each Call

- ☐ Log notes
 - ☐ Send trial link / next step within the hour, not end of day
 - ☐ Note any knowledge base gaps the copilot didn't cover well

Weekly Reminders

Monday: Pipeline Review

- Review active trials and stalled ones
- Plan the week's outreach (individuals + bundle prospects)

Wednesday: Mid-Week Check

- Review trial-to-paid conversion for the week so far
- Follow up on any demo calls without a next step booked

Friday: Week-End Review

- Celebrate wins (new paid conversions, bundle closes)
 - Note what objections came up most, flag any that felt under-prepared for

Monthly Reminders

- Review month's trial-to-paid conversion rate
 - Update knowledge base with any new competitor moves or pricing changes
 - Review bundle pipeline (coaches/bootcamps in conversation)

Knowledge Base Maintenance

Weekly

- Update pricing/discount info if anything changed
- Add any new objection that came up and wasn't covered

Monthly

- Review all knowledge base content for accuracy
 - Add new case studies as they come in
 - Refresh competitor battlecards if a competitor changed pricing or features

Key Metrics to Track

- Trial-to-paid conversion rate
 - Time from signup to first tailored resume
 - Bundle pipeline: organizations in conversation, seats under discussion
 - Objection frequency: which objection comes up most, so talk tracks stay sharp

Personal Development

- Weekly: re-read the objection handling guide, especially the "isn't this cheating" response — it's the one that decides most calls
 - Monthly: sit in on another rep's demo call for a fresh perspective
